Dear Johnson:

It will not be conveniently
in my power to leave for New York before Monday morning;
so I shall, unfortunately, be deprived of the pleasant things you have contrived for me on Sunday.
I will try to be at Mr. and Mrs.
Brace's, Monday evening. Where do they live? Send me word by the bundle.

I shall not attempt a written lecture.

Yours, in galloping haste,
Wm Lloyd Garrison.
